(June 2013)
(Provisional Translation)

1. Number of Escort Operations: 9 times (The 463\textsuperscript{th} – the 471\textsuperscript{th} escort operations)
   (The 422\textsuperscript{th} – the 430\textsuperscript{th} escort operations under Japan’s Anti-Piracy Measures Law)

2. Number of Escorted Vessels: 25 vessels
   (Total 2,998 escorted vessels since the beginning of operations under Japan’s Anti-Piracy Measures Law)

Breakdown:

Japanese flagships – 0 (total 15 escorted vessels under Japan’s Anti-Piracy Measures Law)

Foreign ships operated by Japanese shipping companies – 3 (total 560 escorted vessels under Japan’s Anti-Piracy Measures Law)
   (This figure includes 0 foreign ship Japanese citizens are on board (total 36 escorted vessels of this kind under Japan’s Anti-Piracy Measures Law))

Foreign ships other than the above – 22 (total 2,423 escorted vessels under Japan’s Anti-Piracy Measures Law)
   (This figure includes 0 foreign ship Japanese citizens are on board (total 15 escorted vessels of this kind under Japan’s Anti-Piracy Measures Law))

* These figures do not include the 1\textsuperscript{st} – 41\textsuperscript{st} escort operations conducted as Maritime Security Operations before the approval of the Anti-Piracy Measures Law.