

JGSDF News Release

<http://www.mod.go.jp/gsdf/news/press/>
(Notice)

12 Aug 2018

Public Affairs Office, Ground Staff Office, JGSDF

JGSDF and U.S. Armed Forces will conduct FY2018 Bilateral Command Post Exercise “Yama Sakura 75” in Japan.

1 Purpose of the exercise

JGSDF unit and U.S. Armed Forces unit will train staff works at Army level in combined operation under respective chain of command to maintain and enhance their capabilities.

2 Period

From 3 Dec 2018 to 17 Dec 2018

3 Places

Camp Higashi Chitose, Camp Sendai and other sites.

4 Units

(1) JGSDF

a Officer scheduling the exercise, OSE : Gen. Koji Yamazaki, Chief of Staff, JGSDF

b Commanders of the exercise : Lt. Gen. Masato Taura, Commanding General, Northern Army
: Lt. Gen. Hideki Agario, Commanding General, North Eastern Army

c Units : Ground Staff Office, Ground Component Command, Northern Army, North Eastern Army, Training Evaluation Research and Development Command and other units. Approx 5000 personnel.

(2) U.S. Armed Forces

a Officer scheduling the exercise, OSE : Gen. Robert B. BROWN, Commanding General, U.S. Army, Pacific.

b Commanders of the exercise : Lt. Gen. Gary J. Volesky, Commanding General, I Corps.

c Units : U.S. Army Pacific, U.S. Army Japan, I Corps, III Marine Expeditionary Force and other units. Approx 1600 personnel.

5 Others

(1) We will receive observers composed by Australian Army, and other countries.

(2) We will conduct observation about National protection measures with Japanese public agencies, in conjunction with the exercise.