Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) and the Indian Air Force will conduct bilateral training “SHINYUU-MAITRI 18” for the purpose of improving air transport capability as well as deepening mutual understanding and strengthening relationship of trust. The details are as follows:

Details

1. Period
   December 1 to December 8, 2018

2. Location
   Agra Air Force Station

3. Participants
   Koku-Jieitai: 3rd Tactical Airlift Group (Miho) One C-2
   Indian Air Force: 28th Wing 81st Squadron (Hindon) One C-17
                   4th Wing 12th Squadron (Agra) One An-32

4. Contents
   Familiarization with regional characteristics, formation training and take-off landing procedures with high field elevation etc.

5. Remarks
   It is the first time to conduct a bilateral training between Koku-Jieitai and Indian Air Force.