Japan-India Bilateral Training

Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) and the Indian Air Force will conduct bilateral training “SHINYUU-MAITRI 19” for the purpose of improving air transport capability as well as deepening mutual understanding and strengthening relationship of trust.

Details

1. Period
   October 15 to 25, 2019

2. Location
   Arjan Singh Air Force Station, West Bengal, India

3. Participants
   Koku-Jieitai: One C-130H and approx. 20 personnel, 1st Tactical Airlift Group (Komaki AB), Air Support Command
   Indian Air Force: C-130J, 31th Wing 87st Squadron (Arjan Singh AB)

4. Contents
   Formation training, drop training and assault landing training

5. Remarks
   It is the second time to conduct a bilateral training between Koku-Jieitai and the Indian Air Force.