

Chief of Staff's official trip to the Republic of Singapore

From February 4th to 7th, 2018, General Yoshinari Marumo, Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai, visited the Republic of Singapore to attend the Singapore Airshow 2018 upon the official invitation by Major General Mervyn Tan, Chief of Air Force (CAF) of the Republic of Singapore Air Force (RSAF).

During the visit, General Marumo had bilateral talks with Major General Tan, General David L. Goldfein, Chief of Staff (CoS) of the U.S. Air Force (USAF), and other participating Air Force Chiefs and Commanders. The discussions further strengthened relationships among the air forces, and contributed to the build-up of defense capabilities by exchanging their views on a wide range of topics, including regional situations and defense cooperation.

Koku-Jieitai will continue to seek more opportunities to develop these relationships.
