Transporting donated goods to Republic of the Marshall Islands by Koku-Jieitai transport aircraft (C-130H)

401 Squadron, 1 Airlift Wing, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self Defense Force) transported donated goods such as wheel chairs, stationery, volley balls and base ball items for local people of Republic of the Marshall Islands, where Koku-Jieitai will stop over, responding to a request from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

This year marks the 30th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries, and this mission contributed to the even better bilateral relations.

1: KAGAMI BIRAKI is Japanese traditional event that carries out at the outset of an auspicious ceremony, which is to pray for good luck and prosperity of both Republic of the Marshall Islands and Japan.