On May 31st, 2019, Koku-Jieitai invited Colonel William Anderson, Air Attaché, Embassy of the United States of America, as a guest lecturer to Air Staff Office.

Based on the experiences residing in Japan as Air Attaché, Colonel Anderson gave a lecture on the importance of the Japan-U.S. Alliance by citing classical literature. Through the lecture, we reconfirmed that the air forces of Japan and the U.S. work in close cooperation in various fields, and it plays a part in the strong Japan-U.S. Alliance. Koku-Jieitai will utilize any opportunities to deepen relationship with the U.S. Air Force.
