

Lieutenant General Kojima's Visit to the United Arab Emirates

From November 15 to 18, Lieutenant General KOJIMA Takashi, Commander, Air Development and Test Command, visited the United Arab Emirates (UAE) and observed the Dubai Air Show held at the Al Maktoum International Airport.

During his visit to the UAE, Lt Gen Kojima participated in the Dubai International Air Chiefs' Conference 2025 (DIACC 2025). He also engaged in a discussion with Major General Mohamed Salem Ali Alhameli, Deputy Commander, UAE Air Force & Air Defence, where they aligned their understanding on regional affairs and discussed ways to advance future cooperation. Furthermore, he engaged in talks with air chiefs from other participating countries, sharing the recognition of the importance of advancing defense cooperation and exchanges.

Koku-Jieitai will continue to maintain and strengthen the relationship with the UAE Air Force & Air Defence and other partners, thereby contributing to peace and stability in the region.

