

F-35B Deployment Ceremony at Nyutabaru Air Base

On February 7, F-35B deployment ceremony was held at Koku-Jieitai (JASDF) Nyutabaru Air Base. Mr. YOSHIDA Shinji, Parliamentary Vice-Minister of Defense, and General MORITA Takehiro, Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai, attended the ceremony and delivered remarks to Koku-Jieitai personnel. They also expressed their sincere gratitude for the long-standing understanding and support of the local community.

As the security environment surrounding Japan becomes increasingly severe, Koku-Jieitai will continue the steady deployment of F-35B, further strengthen its air defense capabilities, and maintain the necessary posture to contribute to peace and stability in the region.
