

Chief of Staff Welcomes Chief of Air Force, Royal New Zealand Air Force

From June 2 to June 4, General MORITA Takehiro, Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai (JASDF), invited Air Vice-Marshal Darryn Webb, Chief of Air Force, Royal New Zealand Air Force (RNZAF), to Japan for an official visit.

General Morita and Air Vice-Marshal Webb shared their recognition of progress and future prospects in Japan–New Zealand bilateral defense cooperation between the air services and reaffirmed their commitment to further enhancing it.

They also visited Fuchu Air Base, Iruma Air Base, and Hamamatsu Air Base to gain firsthand insight into Koku-Jieitai's units.

Koku-Jieitai will continue to strengthen its partnership with the RNZAF and remain committed to contributing to peace and stability in the region.
