

Koku-Jieitai and German Air and Space Force Sign Letter of Intent on Cooperation in the Space Domain

On July 15, General MORITA Takehiro, Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai (JASDF), held a meeting with Lieutenant General Holger Neumann, Chief of the German Air and Space Force, in the United Kingdom. During the meeting, they reaffirmed the importance of Japan–Germany cooperation and signed a Letter of Intent regarding the enhancement of cooperation between the Koku-Jieitai and the German Air and Space Force in the space domain.

This Letter of Intent aims to expand bilateral cooperation to enhance our operational capabilities and interoperability in the space domain.

The Koku-Jieitai will continue to strengthen its capabilities in the space domain while further enhancing cooperation with the German Air and Space Force.
