

F-2 Makes First Visit to Thailand

On September 6 and 7, 8th Air Wing flew F-2 to Thailand, en route to India for the Japan-India bilateral exercise “Veer Guardian 26”, marking the first visit of the Koku-Jieitai(JASDF) F-2 to the country.

During the visit, 8th Air Wing conducted unit to unit exchange with the Royal Thai Air Force and also paid a call on Commander of Naval Air Division to deepen mutual understanding and foster relationship of trust.

With an eye toward 140th anniversary of Japan-Thailand diplomatic relations in 2027, and under Comprehensive Strategic Partnership, the Koku-Jieitai will continue to promote cooperation with the Royal Thai Air Force and remains committed to realizing a Free and Open Indo-Pacific (FOIP).
