Chief of Staff Welcomes Chief of Staff of the U.S. Air Force

On October 19, General MORITA Takehiro, Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai (JASDF) met with General, Kenneth S. Wilsbach, Chief of Staff of the United States Air Force at the Ministry of Defense, Ichigaya. This marked their fourth meeting since General Morita took office last August.

During the meeting, General Morita reaffirmed strong relationship of trust between the air chiefs and welcomed steady progresses of bilateral cooperation with the United States Air Force across various areas of mutual interest including coproduction of defense equipment.

Recognizing the importance of the Japan-U.S. Alliance, the Koku-Jieitai will further strengthen its relationship with the United States Air Force to remain committed to peace and stability of the region and the world.

