

Staff level exchange with the Royal Australian Air Force (video conference)

On May 28th, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) had a staff-level exchange with the Royal Australian Air Force (RAAF) through video conference system. They discussed major changes in the security environment surrounding Indo-Pacific region including issues related to the COVID-19 pandemic. They also exchanged views on future collaboration between RAAF and Koku-Jieitai. Koku-Jieitai will promote deeper and broader defense cooperation and exchanges with RAAF based on “Special Strategic Partnership” through every possible means.

Video conference