

“Greetings from Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai”

Thank you very much for visiting our Koku-Jieitai’s website. I'm General IZUTSU Shunji, the 36th Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) appointed on August 25, 2020. In light of severe military situations around Japan, unpredictable international relations and domestic concerns such as flooding disasters that occur every year and this year’s COVID-19 pandemic, the Koku-Jieitai is required to carry out its missions in a very stringent environment. Even in such severe situations, commanding officers at every level provide firm direction and guidance, and all the members adhere to the basics while always pursuing creative measures to achieve their mission. I am very proud of the members of Koku-Jieitai. As the Chief of Staff, I am fully aware of this important responsibility and committed to fulfilling my duties.

I would like to kindly ask all of you for your continued understanding and support.

August 25, 2020,
General IZUTSU Shunji
Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force)
