

Chief of Staff's Participation in Global Air Chief's Conference by the Royal Air Force

On July 14, GEN IZUTSU Shunji, Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) virtually participated in Global Air Chief's Conference hosted by the Royal Air Force .

At the conference, GEN IZUTSU watched ACM Sir Wigston's keynote speech and panel discussions on several themes, and participated in live events of corporate sponsors using a virtual network system.

The conference helped him gain broad knowledge of future air power including space, and deepen the relationship between the Koku-Jieitai and the Royal Air Force.
