

Chief of Staff participated in an online seminar held by the Stimson Center

---

On November 5th, General IZUTSU Shunji, Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai(JASDF), participated in an online seminar held by the Stimson Center, think tanks in the U.S, as a panelist at the Stimson Center's request. The subject of the seminar was "Future of Japan-U.S. Defense Cooperation in Aerospace." General Izutsu introduced the security environment surrounding Japan and explained the importance of the international cooperation to realize a Free and Open Indo-Pacific(FOIP) on the axis of Japan-U.S. alliance.

