

1st RQ-4B Global Hawk was successfully ferried

On March 12, the 1st RQ-4B Global Hawk was delivered to Japan. RQ-4B Global Hawk was introduced in order to conduct information gathering in areas relatively remote from Japan, as well as persistent airborne monitoring during situations with heightened tensions. It will greatly contribute to operational strengthening of the SDF and Japan-U.S. interoperability.

