

Participation in the Silver Flag

From June 27 to July 1, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) participated in Silver Flag hosted by Pacific Air Force, with the Royal Australian Air Force, the Indonesian Air Force, the Singapore Air Force and the Republic of Korea Air Force, at Andersen Air Force Base, Guam.

This exercise was conducted for a wide range of levels, from Officers to Airman, in cooperation with relevant countries, to improve the capabilities of civil engineering.

Since the skill is important for supporting the operations of aircraft, Koku-Jieitai will continue to enhance its civil engineering capabilities in cooperation with countries in the Indo-Pacific.

