

Official visit to Japan by Commander of Air Force, Mongolian Armed Forces

From November 23 to 28, the Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) officially invited Commander of Air Force Ganbat, Mongolian Armed Forces to Japan, and strengthened its relationship and enhanced mutual understanding with the Mongolian Armed Forces through exchange of views with General IZUTSU, Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai and visits to base and units of the Koku-Jieitai.

COS IZUTSU and CAF Ganbat mutually confirmed that the defense cooperation and exchanges between the two air forces would be accelerated.

CAF Ganbat also met with Lieutenant General NAGUMO kenichiro, Commander, Western Air Defense Force and Major General ISHIMURA Takahisa Commander, 7th Air Wing, Hyakuri AB, and visited units located in the two bases, which contributed to understanding of the Koku-Jieitai's units and equipment.

Koku-Jieitai is confident this visit will further strengthen the relationship of trust between the two air forces and we will continue to promote defense cooperation and exchanges between with the Mongolian Armed Forces.

Wreath Laying Ceremony

Honor Guard Ceremony

Meeting with Gen IZUTSU, COS, Koku-Jieitai

Boarding C-2 Transport Aircraft

Visit to Hyakuri Air Base

Visit to Kasuga Air Base