

Koku-Jieitai held a special ceremony to inaugurate 'Reconnaissance Group'

On January 23, Koku-Jieitai(Japan Air Self-Defense Force) hold a special ceremony to inaugurate 'Reconnaissance Group' in Misawa Air Base.

Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai and others made remarks of congratulation.

Reconnaissance Group operates RQ-4B Global Hawk and collect intelligence relatively far from Japan, and provide seamless aerial surveillance in urgent situations.

While gaining the understanding of Japanese nationals and locals, Koku-Jieitai is going to operate it safely and establish its operational posture, reinforcing interoperability between Japan and the U.S. and contributing to safety and security of people of Japan.
