

【Press Release】

Feb 16, 2023
Air Staff Office

Table-top exercise with the
7th Space Operations Squadron from 7 Wing (Space) under 3 Canadian Space Division

Japan Air Self-Defense Force (JASDF) will be on a table-top exercise with 7th Space Operations Squadron from 7 Wing (Space) under 3 Canadian Space Division, Royal Canadian Air Force:

Details

1. Purpose

The table-top exercise with 7th Space Operations Squadron (7th SOPS), supported by the Canadian Joint Operations Command (CJOC), Royal Canadian Air Force will let JASDF to facilitate mutual understanding and establish space cooperation procedure between both Japan and Canadian space units, which will lead to contributing defense cooperation and exchange between Japan and Canada.

2. Dates

6th to 7th, March, 2023

*The deployment of 7th SOPS/7 Wing (Space), Royal Canadian Air Force on 4th to 7th, March, 2023.

3. Location

Fuchu Air Base.

4. Participating Units

- a. JASDF : Space Operations Group (Fuchu)
- b. 7th SOPS : approx. 20 personnel
CC-150 Transport aircraft × 1(Only used for deployment and withdrawal)

5. Content

Table-top exercise

6. Remarks

- a. Precautionary measures against COVID-19 will be implemented during the exercise.
- b. CC-150 Royal Canadian Air Force will only land on and take off from Hyakuri Air Base; no unit-to-unit exchanges and flight training will be conducted at Hyakuri Air Base.