

Participation in the AVALON2023

From February 26 to March 7, Koku-Jieitai(Japan Air Self-Defense Force) have C-2 transport aircraft participate in the Australian International Airshow 2023(Avalon2023) at the invitation of Royal Australian Air Force(RAAF).

During the airshow period from February 28 to March 5, Koku-Jieitai held static and flying displays of the aircraft and showcased its advanced performance and operational capabilities domestically and internationally. Koku-Jieitai Japanese Taiko Drum Team "Iruma Syubu Daiko" performed in the airshow and conducted cultural exchanges.

In addition, Koku-Jieitai and RAAF carried out exchanges between airlift units and between RAAF / PACAF bands and Japanese Taiko Drum Team to promote mutual understanding.

Koku-Jieitai will continue to enhance the service-to-service relationship with RAAF through various opportunities, and actively promote defense cooperation and exchanges with countries that share the significance of the rule of law.

【C-2】

Flying Display

Static Display

"BEST HEAVY JET" Award

Royal Australian Air Force(RAAF)

United States Air Force(USAF)

German Air Force

Royal Malaysian Air Force

【Japanese Taiko Drum Team】

Taiko Drum Team performance

Cultural Exchange

Experience

Exchanges with
RAAF and PACAF bands

Collaboration with
US Army Drone Racing Team
(Video distribution)