

Japan-Canada Space Tabletop Exercise

---

On March 6 and 7, Koku-Jieita (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) conducted a space Table Top Exercise (TTX) with the Royal Canadian Air Force (RCAF) at Fuchu Air Base . This exercise was the first time for both Koku-Jieitai and RCAF.

The TTX was conducted for the purpose of establishing information sharing structure regarding space domain awareness, promoting shared understanding between each space units and contributing the progress of bilateral defense cooperation and exchange.

Koku-Jieitai will continue to promote defence cooperation and exchange with partner nations and it's space operation forces, including with RCAF to contribute to the peaceful and stable use of space.

