

Capacity Building for Vietnam Air Defence-Air Force (Air Rescue)

From March 5 to 10, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) conducted capacity building activities in air rescue for Vietnam Air Defence-Air Force. Koku-Jieitai dispatched personnel from Air Rescue Wing to Vietnam to share expertise in air rescue between the two air services, and to visit air rescue units of Vietnam Air Defence-Air Force. Koku-Jieitai, together with Vietnam Air Defence-Air Force, will actively contribute to the peace and stability of the region and the international community.
