

Japan-U. S. Lunch Meeting

On May 8, Lieutenant General OGASAWARA Takuto, Vice Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) attended the Japan-U. S. luncheon hosted by Brigadier General Friedel, Deputy Commander of the U. S. 5th Air Force.

At the luncheon, they shared their current situation since the meeting in March, and agreed to further advance cooperation between the two air forces with a renewed mind in the season of fresh greenery. They also welcomed progress in bilateral efforts based on the regional security environment in Indo-Pacific region, reaffirmed the significance of the Japan-US Alliance as a foundation of regional peace and stability, and agreed to continue to advance efforts to uphold and reinforce Free and Open Indo-Pacific (FOIP). Koku-Jieitai will continue to strengthen close relationship with the U. S. Air Force.

※This photo was taken in March 2023