

【Press Release】

Jun 27, 2023
Air Staff Office

Multilateral training in Mobility Guardian23

JASDF (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) is going to participate in multilateral training in Mobility Guardian23 (MG23) as below to contribute to maintaining and reinforcing the Free and Open Indo-Pacific.

Notes

1. Purpose

JASDF will conduct multilateral training in Mobility Guardian23 held by the United States Air Force to enhance tactical skills of the units, multilateral response capabilities, and interoperability between the participating countries in a practical training environment.

2. Period

July 3 to July 21, 2023

3. Locations

- i. JASDF Komaki Air Base and the surrounding airspace
- ii. JASDF Yakumo Sub Base
- iii. Scott Air Force Base, Illinois, U.S.
- iv. Andersen Air Force Base, Guam, U.S. and the surrounding airspace
- v. Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam, Hawaii, U.S.
- vi. Northern Mariana Islands, U.S.
- vii. Roman Tmetuchl International Airport, Palau

4. Participants

2C-130Hs and 240 crew members, the 1st Tactical Airlift Wing, Komaki AB

5. Training Contents

Tactical airlift training, rapid deployment training, aeromedical evacuation training and command post training.