

JAPAN-U. S. Space Engagement Talks

On July 13, Maj. Gen. Sakanashi, Director General, Defense Planning and Policy Department, ASO, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) hosted a Space Engagement Talks meeting with Lt. Gen. Garrant, the Deputy Chief of Space Operations, Strategy, Plans, Programs, and Requirements, United States Space Force for the first time. We conducted discussions on ways for Japan and the United States to further deepen our space cooperation and identified next steps to enhance our future collaboration in space domain.

Japan Air Self-Defense Force will continue to further strengthen our ties with United Space Force for sustaining rule-based international order, based on Japan's New Plan for a "Free and Open Indo-Pacific (FOIP)".

