

International Military Music Festival "AVENCHES TATTOO"

From August 31 to September 2, Japan Air Self-Defense Force (JASDF) Central Band participated in the International Military Music Festival "AVENCHES TATTOO" held in Avenches, Switzerland for the first time from JSDF bands.

The United Kingdom, the Netherlands, and Belgium joined the festival besides host nation Switzerland. While each band gave elaborated performances, JASDF Central Band made its presence with its high musical performance skills through city parade, street concert and drill performance with traditional Japanese instruments to demonstrate Japanese culture, playing significant role in the success of the event.

JASDF will continue to actively promote various cooperation and exchanges with like-minded countries, and strive for creating peace and stable international environment.
