

Participation in NATO Partner Air Chiefs' Conference

On November 9, General UCHIKURA Hiroaki, Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force) participated in NATO Partner Air Chiefs' Conference online.

Based on recognition that security of Europe and Indo-Pacific is inseparable, he gave a presentation on security environment surrounding Japan, and collaboration between Koku-Jieitai and NATO, and listened to speeches of other countries.

Particularly, the presentation included Koku-Jieitai's enhancement of practical cooperation for space security and mutual understanding under Japan-NATO Individually Tailored Partnership Programme (ITPP), formulated to respond to challenges of a new era in this July.

Moreover, reports of each country helped to gain insight of situations and strategies of participating countries, and promoted mutual understanding among the guests.

This conference facilitated to bring about a better understanding of the importance of peace and stability in the Indo-Pacific region as well as strengthen cooperative relations to deal with global security challenges. Koku-Jieitai will continue to

