

Visit of Vice Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai to Singapore

From February 19 to 21, responding to invitation from Chief of Air Force, Republic of Singapore Air Force (RSAF), Lieutenant General OGASAWARA Takuto, Vice Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai (Japan Air Self-Defense Force), participated in the Singapore Airshow 2024.

During the trip, he met with air chiefs from various countries including Singapore, the United States and Australia to confirm that Japan and these countries share the recognition of security issues in the Indo-Pacific region, and had a wide-range of discussion on future defense cooperation and exchanges.

ASEAN countries are important partners in cooperation for peace, stability, development and prosperity in the Indo-Pacific region for more than 50 years.

Koku-Jieitai will work together with Singapore and other countries to promote defense cooperation and exchanges to realize a Free and Open Indo-Pacific (FOIP).

