

Visit of Deputy Chief of the Air Staff, Royal Air Force to Japan

On Tuesday, 16th April, General UCHIKURA Hiroaki, Chief of Staff and Lieutenant General OGASAWARA Takuto, Vice Chief of Staff, Japan Air Self-Defense Force (Koku-Jieitai) met with Air Marshal Paul Lloyd, Deputy Chief of the Air Staff, Royal Air Force (RAF).

Through meetings, they deepened mutual understanding and agreed to further strengthen relationship between Koku-Jieitai and RAF. They also reaffirmed the importance of peace and stability in the Indo-Pacific region, and they will continue their commitment to realizing Free and Open Indo-Pacific.

On following Wednesday, 17th April, Air Marshal Lloyd visited Yokota and Fuchu Air Base to interact with commanders and observed Koku-Jieitai's operations.

