

Lt Gen OGASAWARA's visit to France

From June 26 to 30, Lieutenant General OGASAWARA Takuto, Vice Chief of Staff, Koku-Jieitai(Japan Air Self-Defense Force) visited France. He participated in the ceremony celebrating the 90th anniversary of French Air and Space Force(FASF) and the International Air Chief Conference.

During his visit, he held a meeting with General Mille, Chief of Staff, FASF, and expressed his congratulations on their 90th anniversary. They also confirmed that they would continue deepening exchanges and strengthening cooperation between the two services through various opportunities in the future, including the visit to Japan by FASF fighters and other aircraft in July this year.

In addition, at the International Air Chief Conference, Lt Gen Ogasawara served as a panel member and shared his view. He also deepened the mutual understanding with Air Chiefs from various countries.

This year, Koku-Jieitai has marked its 70th anniversary. Based on the recognition "The security of Euro-Atlantic and Indo-Pacific are inseparable," we will continue to promote defense cooperation and exchanges with like-minded countries and contribute to regional peace and stability.

