

F-35 Sister Squadron exchange between Royal Australian Air Force and Koku-Jieitai

24-29 August, F-35 Pilots belong to the 301st Squadron, Koku-Jieitai visited RAAF Base Tindal and RAAF Base Williamtown to conduct the unit-level exchanges including F-35 sister squadron exchange between No.75 squadron, RAAF. In the exchange, participants have shared their views on skills, tactics, maintenance and trainings for pilots to deepen the mutual understanding and cooperation. This exchange has agreed to start in September 2023.

Koku-Jieitai will continue the cooperation with the Royal Australian Air Force to further contribute to the peace and stability of the Indo-Pacific region.

