

(Press Release)

Teleconference between Defense Minister Kishi and U.S. Acting Defense Secretary Miller

November 14, 2020
Ministry of Defense

On November 14, Defense Minister Kishi held a telephone conference with Acting Defense Secretary Miller based on the request from the U.S. side. At the outset, Secretary Miller offered his greetings as a new Acting Defense Secretary. They exchanged their views on the situation of the Indo-Pacific region, and confirmed that Japan and the U.S. will cooperate even more closely for the regional peace and stability.