Ministry of Defense

Commissioner Ishikawa's Participation in the 1st IISS Prague Defence Summit

From November 8 to 10, 2024, Mr. ISHIKAWA Takeshi, Acquisition, Technology and Logistics Agency (ATLA) Commissioner, participated in the 1st IISS Prague Defence Summit.

Commissioner Ishikawa participated in Plenary Session “New Players, New Partnerships” as a panelist. He stated the inseparability of the security of the Euro-Atlantic and the Indo-Pacific, and the importance of cooperation with allies and like-minded partners toward the enhancement of defense production and technology bases. He also discussed a range of issues with other panelists. In addition, Commissioner Ishikawa also exchanged views with defense, national security, and industry leaders during the IISS Prague Defence Summit.

With the recognition that the security of the Euro-Atlantic and Indo-Pacific is inseparable, Japan Ministry of Defense will continue deepening cooperation with allies, like-minded countries and defense industries to strengthen defense production and technology bases.

Notes: About the IISS Prague Defence Summit

IISS Prague Defence Summit is an international forum hosted by IISS (The International Institute for Strategic Studies), designed to inspire debate on the issues affecting Euro-Atlantic defense capability development from perspectives including defense innovation and procurement. The 1st IISS Prague Defence Summit was held in Prague this year, convening defense, national security and industry leaders mainly from Euro-Atlantic region.
