

WPS Workshop hosted by Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA and International Peace Institute (IPI)

On 29th October, WPS workshop was held jointly by the Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA and the International Peace Institute (IPI), where Director Matsuzawa of the Office of International Cooperation on WPS introduced the MOD/SDF WPS initiatives.

Approximately 50 people, primarily American researchers and think tank staff, participated in the workshop, with Japan being the only participant from Asia. Through group discussions, there is a lively exchange of opinions on civil-military cooperation and coraboration between government and civil society. MOD will continue to introduce WPS initiatives at various opportunities!
