

November 11 2019
Joint Staff

Commander, U.S. Indo-Pacific visit to Japan

Admiral Phil Davidson, Commander, U.S. Indo-Pacific Command and General Koji Yamazaki, Chief of Staff, Joint Staff held bilateral talks between 31 Oct. and 1 Nov. at the Ministry of Defense, Tokyo Japan. They discussed the current security environment in the Indo-Pacific region, and U.S.-Japan defense cooperation. It was the fifth time both met in 2019.

Admiral Davidson and General Yamazaki agreed to enhance the deterrence and response capabilities and to promote the cooperation in the wider range of the alliance under the current regional security environment which has been rapidly changing and becoming uncertain.

