

PRESS RELEASE

October 3, 2022
Maritime Staff Office

(Announcement)

2nd Dispatched Submarine Training in the U.S. in 2022

The JMSDF will conduct the 2nd Dispatched Submarine Training in the U.S. in 2022 as described below.

1. Objectives

To improve the JMSDF's tactical capabilities

2. Period

October 9- December 26

3. Exercise Area

- (1) Sea from Japan to Hawaii
- (2) In the vicinity of Hawaii islands
- (3) U.S. Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam

4. Participating unit

- (1) Commanding Officer
Commander, KAKIMOTO Fumio, JS TOURYU
- (2) Unit
JS TOURYU
- (3) Number of personnel
Approximately 80

5. Type of exercise

Anti-Submarine Warfare training

6. Notes

- (1) Dispatched Submarine Training in the U.S. has been conducted every year since 1963. This is the 84th time including the dispatches to RIMPAC.
- (2) Preventive measures against COVID-19 will be implemented during the exercise.